

This stunning contemporary building with definite 'wow' factor is home to the unique mix of immersive re-imagined Great Hall and Museum, tours of its pioneering whisky distillery and multi-sensory tastings. From arrival, to tours, Bistro and Gift Shop, Ad Gefrin is all about a timeless welcome and ancient hospitality.

Need to know

Address

South Road, Wooler, NE71 6NJ

What3Words Locator

Encroached. Thrashed.

Redeemed.

Opening/Operating Times

April – Oct: Monday – Sunday
10am – 6pm

Nov-March: Monday – Sunday
10am – 5pm

Trade Information

Under 8's unable to go on Distillery tours but no restrictions on access to Great Hall & Museum.

Pricing

Bistro/Shop Free to enter

Highlights Tour £17.50
Great Hall & Museum £12.50
Distillery Tour & Tasting £15.00
Great Hall, Museum, Distillery Tour & Tasting £18.50

For all travel trade group and individual rates please contact Heidi Gaber by email.

Good to know

Best Time To Visit

10am/morning so there is time to fit everything in.

Average time on site

60-90 minutes

Min & Max Group Numbers

Tours Min 10 Max 25

Larger Groups can be split by arrangement

Individual visitors either book one of our tours in advance or walk ins on the day – in this case, the museum can be visited with a self guided tour, followed by a Distillery Tour on the day, depending on availability. We run multiple tours each day

Upsells available

Out of hours by arrangement
Refreshments/Meals available in 70-seater Bistro or Private Room.

Company meetings and get togethers as well as private catered events can be arranged at our facilities upon request

Who to know

Heidi Gaber

07768 262744

Heidi.gaber@adgefirin.co.uk

Did you know?

Don't miss!

- Immersive re-imagined Great Hall taking you back to the Anglo-Saxon Royal Court.
- Or the artefacts on loan from the British Museum unseen for over 50 years.
- Or the Chance to taste one of Ad Gefrin's spirits – Táchbora (meaning Standard Bearer) whisky blend, or Thirlings Dry Gin, or Flyte whisky cream.

Interesting local facts

- Visit the original site of the 7th Century Royal Palace discovered 4 miles away at Yeavinger.
<https://gefirintrust.org/>
- Or the multiple attractions at Ford & Etal Estates
<https://www.ford-and-etale.co.uk/>
- Or follow the Maelmin Heritage Trail
<https://www.maelmin.org.uk/>