The first Duke of Northumberland built the building of Bailiffgate Hotel in 1780.

The building was the Duke of Northumberland's commissioner's home until 1847.

In 1888, the building was turned into the Duchess School by Duchess Julia and was a school until 2016.

The site is a 1 minute walk from the Barbican entrance to Alnwick Castle, and 10 minute walk to Alnwick Gardens.

Restaurant onsite is open to the public; named Motte & Bailey.

Bailiffgate Hotel can organise trips around Northumberland for the guest, including picnic's in Hulne Park.
