Did you know?

Newcastle-upon-Tyne was the birthplace of the electric lightbulb, in fact the first street in the world to be lit by electric street lights, Mosley Street is just a 5 minute walk from the hotel.

Newcastle's Town Moor is larger than New York's Central Park at 1,000 acres, dwarfing Central Park at only 843 acres.

Built in 1842, The Victoria Tunnel is a series of underground tunnels running for miles underneath the city, formerly used to transport coal to the River Tyne. During the Second World War they were converted into air raid shelters capable of protecting over 9,000 people.
