

Beamish, The Living Museum of the North brings history to life at 1820s Pockerley, 1900s Town, 1900s Pit Village, 1940s Farm, 1950s Town and 1950s Spain's Field Farm. The museum is the North East's most visited attraction and was named as Art Fund Museum of the Year 2025.

Need to know

Address

Beamish Museum, Beamish,
County Durham, DH9 0RG.

What3Words Locator

///wove.gazed.tickets

Opening/Operating Times

10am to 4pm in winter and 10am to 5pm in summer. Last admission is one hour before closing. For full details of opening dates and times, visit beamish.org.uk

Trade Information

In order to qualify for group discount rate, all bookings need to be made and confirmed within at least 24 hours' notice of your planned visit date.

Pricing

Discounted day admission for pre-booked groups of 15 or more. Free admission for coach driver and group organiser, free coach parking on hardstanding. Coach driver hospitality.

Payment

A number of payment options are available. Get in touch to find out more.

Good to know

Best Time To Visit

Beamish Museum is open all year round and offers visitors a fantastic programme of activities and events to join in with.

Average time on site

We advise a minimum visit time of two hours, however, if you want to truly travel back in time, you can easily spend a whole day exploring Beamish Museum!

Min & Max Numbers

Beamish Museum can accommodate groups of all sizes.

Did you know?

Don't miss!

Visitors to Beamish, The Living Museum of the North can take a trip back in time and experience fascinating North East history coming to life.

Interesting local facts

Over the years, Beamish Museum has appeared in several television programmes and films including the Downton Abbey Christmas special in 2015 and the Downton Abbey movie in 2018. Follow in the footsteps of the stars during your visit to the museum!

The museum's packed programme of events offers something for everyone to enjoy. Daytime events are included in admission.

Who to know

Beamish Museum Group Bookings

Phone number: 0191 370 4026

Email address: bookings@beamish.org.uk

Funded by
UK Government