

The hotel is perfectly located to experience all that this charming city has to offer, with the city's magnificent trinity; the university, the castle and the world-renowned Durham Cathedral just a short stroll away.

Need to know

Star Rating

4

Address

9 Old Elvet, Durham, DH1 3HL

What3Words Locator

spine.stone.faded

Parking

£20 per 24 hours

Trade information

Send group enquiries to daniel.walker@indurham.com

Good to know

Rooms

83

Accessibility

4 Accessible Rooms, 2 Blue Badge Parking spaces

Minimum stay

A minimum length of stay operates in periods of high demand,

FIT Rates

Discussable at hotel based on group details

Upsells Available

The hotel has premium rooms available offering more space and upgraded amenities.

Did you know?

The hotel used to house the Labour Party Council chambers and was built in 1898 meaning every room and corridor is original and unique steeped in history and character. Breakfast is served in the room where the decisions used to be made. The hotel then became University offices.

Who to know

Daniel Walker

0191 329 3535

Daniel.walker@indurham.com

Funded by
UK Government