

Named the 'Best Airport in the World' in 2023, Newcastle International Airport is the gateway to the North East region. Passengers can easily fly directly from over 80 destinations and, thanks to strong hub connectivity, the Airport is also easily accessible from 300+ destinations across the globe.

Need to know

Location

Newcastle International Airport is located in the North East of England

Distance to Major Cities

Newcastle International Airport is located approximately 8 miles from Newcastle city centre, which is easily accessible via the local Metro system or Taxis

Parking

The Airport provides a range of parking options, including a car park directly outside the terminal front for convenient drop off and pick ups.

Pricing

A 15-minute free parking option is available in the Airport's Short Stay 2 car park. Prices for other car parking options vary, please visit the Airport's website for more information.

Good to know

Additional Services

Newcastle International Airport is conveniently connected to Newcastle city centre and the wider region by the local Metro train network.

For departing passengers, the Airport prides itself on 98% of passengers being processed through security in under 10 minutes. In its departure lounge, the Airport provides a range of newly refurbished catering outlets serving delicious local produce across their range of breakfast, lunch and dinner menus. An executive lounge is also available for passengers convenience.

Did you know?

Interesting local facts

Newcastle International Airport was named 'Best Airport in the World' in 2023

We offer direct flights to over 80 destinations and connectivity to over 300

Who to know

Alex MacKenzie

Alex.MacKenzie@ngi.org.uk

Funded by
UK Government