Did you know?

Don't miss!

- Raby is without doubt one of the most impressive intact castles in the North of England. Built in the 14th century by the powerful Neville family, it has a long history. The approach to the castle is particularly beautiful as its towers appear and disappear amongst the trees of the surrounding parkland with its ornamental lakes and herds of Fallow and Red Deer.

Interesting local facts

- Raby Castle is a 25-minute drive from High Force Waterfall, one of the largest waterfalls in the UK. High Force Hotel is packed with character, warmth and charm, An idyllic rural retreat in picture-perfect Upper Teesdale. Why not make a day of it and explore all that the Raby estate has to offer?
