

The Roman Army Museum on Hadrian’s Wall is an accessible, interactive and engaging museum. With 3 large galleries, a Roman classroom, film theatre and activity centre. Between April and September witness live archaeology at the adjacent Roman Magna Fort.

Need to know

Address

Roman Army Museum,
Greenhead, Northumberland,
CA8 7JB

What3Words Locator

delays.sheepish.crimson

Opening/Operating Times

09:30-17:00
Feb-November

Trade Information

Fully accessible indoor venue.

Pricing

£10 per adult.

Payment

Credit terms 30 days.

Good to know

Best Time To Visit

During peak season April-September our busiest times are between 11am and 3pm.

Average time on site

Suggest 1.5 hours

Min & Max Numbers

No time slots. No max numbers. Café capacity (indoors) 40 people, cannot be pre-booked. Max film theatre capacity 40.

Upsells available

Luxury packed lunches can be pre-ordered.

Additional discount on group price if visiting Roman Vindolanda Fort & Museum and the Roman Army Museum & Magna Fort

Did you know?

Don't miss!

- The Edge of Empire film. 20 mins long and is screened on the hour and half hour throughout the day.
- The Hadrian Room. Find out about the Emperor, his life and his lovers.

Interesting local facts

- Between April and September you can witness live archaeology taking place.
- The museum lies adjacent to Walltown Crags, the highest standing section of Hadrian’s Wall. It takes 20 minutes to walk from the museum to Hadrian’s Wall
- The Fort at Magna was home to the Syrian Archers.

Who to know

Lucy Dracup, Booking Officer

01434 344277

Lucy.dracup@vindolanda.com