

The Geordie welcome is renowned the world over for its genuine warmth. The Royal Station Hotel invites you to celebrate Geordie culture with our AfterTOON Tea, 'Toon' being local vernacular for the Town itself. Local stories & cuisine is at the heart of our delivery – it's really Newcastle on a plate.

Need to know

Address

Royal Station Hotel, Neville Street, Newcastle Upon Tyne, NE15DH

What3Words Locator
tens.ages.zest

Opening/Operating Times

Served daily 12pm-4pm

Trade Information

Subject to availability, walk-ins welcome. Suitable for adults as alcohol is included.

Pricing

£27.95 per person to include prosecco or Newcastle Brown Ale

Payment

Payment as part of group contract, where credit is approved then payment will be settled after departure

Good to know

Best Time To Visit

Midweek is the quietest time to plan your visit.

Average time on site

Average up to 1.5hrs to enjoy the moment together.

Min & Max Numbers

No minimum numbers, groups above 6 covers must book in advance.

Upsells available

Our fabulous Tickets cocktail bar and Empire Bar will be open for any additional enhancements required during your experience

Did you know?

Don't miss!

- Newcastle is the famous for local pride and the opportunity to showcase the best of the region on a plate, makes this experience a must-see during your visit.

Interesting local facts

- As part of the city centre, you can wander through 1,000 years of history and culture. From the stone walls & Roman remnants of Newcastle Castle, to world class shopping – it's all on our doorstep.

Who to know

Kieran Grieves

07990 404645

Kieran.grieves@royalstationhotel.com