

If you're looking to experience and enjoy Newcastle, Northumberland or Durham's culinary scene and vibrant atmosphere, Triple A Food Tours is the first choice for any foodie. As the North East's leading on foot food tour, we offer you the chance to experience the best local, organic and sustainable food. Our tours offer such a diverse range of dining styles, from walking street food to Michelin Guide restaurants! As locals, our friendly team are here to guide you through a walking tour of our beautiful, historic city!

Whether you want to join our walking food tours during the week, have a private tour, book us for a hen do, or have us host a food and wine tasting, you can count on our local guides to offer you a fun experience.

Our tours will take you to carefully selected eateries that offer the most beautiful produce the North has to offer!
